Connecticut Building Congress Hosts Building an Economic Powerhouse One Brick at a Time: Shelton's Success from Fields to Factories

HARTFORD, Conn –

The Connecticut Building Congress will host the program “Building an Economic Powerhouse One Brick at a Time: Shelton's Success from Fields to Factories” on Tuesday February 11, 2020 (snow date February 12) at The Cascade, 480 Sherman Avenue, Hamden, Connecticut. The event will start at 5:30 pm with networking and registration. The snow date for this event is Wednesday February 12th.

Learn how a clear vision, smart planning, and strategic implementation are vital to converting key community assets to winning opportunities. The program will feature Shelton Mayor Mark Lauretti along with members of the development community who have played a key role in Shelton's success, and how similar efforts can and are being used in other communities in the region and around the state.

Our distinguished speakers include:

- Keynote Speaker: Mark Lauretti, Mayor, City of Shelton
- Moderator: Bill Purcell, President, Greater Valley Chamber of Commerce

Our distinguished panel includes:

- John Guedes, President, Primrose Companies (Developer)
- Mark Nielsen, Assistant Director, Naugatuck Valley Council of Governments
- Other Speakers to be announced

Agenda:

5:30 - 6:30 PM: Networking and Registration
6:30 - 7:15 PM: Dinner & Dessert
7:15 - 8:15 PM: Program and Q&A
8:15 - 8:30 PM: Closing Remarks and Door Prize Drawing

REGISTRATION: www.cbc-ct.org by Thursday February 7, 2020

College and High School Students Welcome - We welcome college and high school students with an interest in the design and construction industry, especially those from CBC's alliance colleges: Capital Community College Construction Management and Engineering Technology programs, Central Connecticut State University Construction Management program, and University of Connecticut Department of Civil and Environmental Engineering.

The Connecticut Building Congress creates a forum for building professionals to connect, learn, and grow. Since 1952 CBC has been the premier organization for Connecticut's building professionals to develop strong industry connections.
